

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ MAY 11 1935 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Who's Who

AT THE NATIONAL
BOYS' AND GIRLS'
4-H CLUB CAMP

1934

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
Extension Service
C. W. Warburton, Director
C. B. Smith, Assistant Director

W H O'S W H O
at the
E I G H T H
N A T I O N A L 4-H C L U B C A M P
Washington, D. C.
June 14-20, 1934

- - - - -

C L U B D E L E G A T E S

ALABAMA

Mr. John Haupt, Baldwin County, is in his fourth year of club work, specializing in poultry and cucumber growing. He has participated in contests for judging poultry and livestock at the district fair. He has been a delegate to the Mobile District Fair. He has been assistant local leader, secretary, and president of his club.

Miss Louise Lee, Monroe County, has had 5 years of club work, specializing in clothing, foods, room improvement, and food preservation. She has exhibited her work at State and county events, where she has been awarded many prizes and trips. She has attended short course and county camp, and had three trips to the National Club Congress. She has been a member of the foods judging team. In 1932 she won first place in the bread-making contest and second place in the health contest. She has been secretary, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Robert Newman, Chambers County, entered 4-H club work in 1930, with corn, calves, and pigs as his enterprise. He has participated in livestock-judging contests for the last 3 years, and has been a member of the county, district, and State judging teams. He has attended the State and district fairs. He has filled the club offices of local leader, secretary, and president.

Miss Frances Howard Sullivan, Montgomery County, since becoming a club member has completed projects in clothing, foods, home improvement, food preservation, and curb marketing. She has specialized in selling cakes and flowers, and has assisted her mother in preparing and selling vegetables, poultry, and eggs. She has taught canning methods to negro tenants on her father's farm. She has participated in 7 county judging contests and 3 health contests. She has attended short course and has filled the club offices of vice president and president.

ARIZONA

Miss Wildermuth

ARKANSAS

Mr. Bernice Graff, Cross County, has been interested in corn and dairy-club work since his first year, 1930. He has exhibited successfully and taken part in judging contests. He has attended the Tri-State Fair, and has been a delegate to the National Club Congress. He has been news reporter and president of his club and also president of the county 4-H club.

Mr. Curtis Hawkins, Cleveland County, began his 4-H club work in 1930, when he joined the cotton club; later he added corn and soybeans. He has given demonstrations in legume-seed inoculation contests. He has attended the State club camp. He has been assistant local leader and president of his club, president of the County Council, and vice president of the State 4-H Council.

Miss Irene Huddleston, Independence County, has been in 4-H club work since 1930, carrying projects in gardening, canning, clothing, home improvement, and poultry. She has given demonstrations in canned products and in clothing. She has been news reporter and secretary of her club.

Miss Flora Kumpe, Pulaski County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, and has specialized in gardening and canning. In 1933 she sold 468 quarts of vegetables. In the State judging contest she won first place for bread; also she judged canned goods and products for marketing. She has given demonstrations in clothing and foods. She has served her club as news reporter, secretary, treasurer, and vice president. She has been a delegate to the National Club Congress and the Mid-South Fair.

CONNECTICUT

Miss Dorothy Dunlop, Hartford County, has spent 6 years in club work, including in her enterprises clothing, garden, canning, and food club work. She has competed successfully at State and county contests in judging demonstrations and exhibits, and has won second place in the canning contest at the Eastern States Exposition. Last year she started a cooking club. She makes her own clothes. She has won trips to the State fair, State Club round-up, and to Camp Vail. She was assistant 4-H club leader 2 years and local leader 1 year, and has been president and vice president of her club.

Mr. Howard D. Johnson, Windham County, has carried on garden, poultry, and dairy club work since he joined the 4-H club in 1927. He has conducted demonstrations in feed, fitting and showing, and sanitary milk production. He has exhibited successfully at State and county contests. This year he is leading a garden club. He has attended short course and club camp.

Miss Mary Augusta Manning, New London County, joined a 4-H club in 1927, when she chose clothing, room improvement, garden, canning, health, and food club work. She has competed successfully at State and county contests in judging demonstrations and exhibits, winning honors and trips. She has attended short course, county and State round-up, fairs and county camp. At present she is leading a club. She has been assistant local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Thomas Pearsall, New Haven County, has carried poultry club work since 1930, when he joined the 4-H club. Later he added handicraft. He has given demonstrations in the building of a chick feed hopper, and in culling, judging, and handling. He won first place for the eggs which he entered at the Connecticut Poultry Association Egg and Baby-Chick Show. He helped to organize the New Haven County Loyalty Club for older 4-H members. He has won a trip to Camp Vail and also to the Boston Poultry Show. He has the management of a 1,500-bird farm. He is president of the New Haven County 4-H Fair Association. He has been assistant local leader and president of his club.

DELAWARE

Miss Dorothy Craig, Kent County, joined a 4-H club in 1925, choosing sewing and canning. She has been a delegate to the junior short course twice. She has been news reporter, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Joseph I. Cross, New Castle County, selected poultry and gardening as his club enterprises, and has carried them each year since 1930. During the past 3 years he has been active in State poultry-judging contests and also has given poultry demonstrations. He has been a delegate to Camp Vail and to the State short course. He has been local leader and president of his club.

Mr. Everett Mai, Sussex County, has specialized in poultry-club work since 1930, when he joined a 4-H club. He has taken part in poultry-judging contests at the county fair and State poultry show. He has attended the short course and has been president of his club.

Miss Margaret Wheatley, Sussex County, has been interested in canning and cooking since she joined a 4-H club. For the past 2 years she has judged canning at the fair. She has been a delegate to the State short course.

FLORIDA

Miss Margaret Alford, Manatee County, became a 4-H club member in 1931, when she undertook poultry, canning, and gardening. She has taken part in dress-revue contests of both State and county, winning first in the county contest for the last 3 years. She also has entered both State and county health contests. She has been a delegate to the State short course. She has been local leader, president, and secretary of her club.

Mr. William Clegg, Alachua County, is in his sixth year of club work and has completed projects in corn, peanuts, pig, dairy, poultry, baby beef, and sugarcane. He has exhibited successfully at State and county contests, and won a trip to the International Livestock Show in 1930, a scholarship to the University of Florida in 1931, first place in the Florida 4-H livestock contest in 1933, and several trips to State short course and State fairs. He has been secretary and treasurer of his club.

Mr. Thomas C. Lamb, Orange County, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1929, choosing poultry, sweetpotatoes, calf, swine, and forage crops as his projects. In 1931 he represented his county in the State 4-H poultry-judging contest, when he won first place and was State champion; in addition he won a trip to the National Club Congress. He also won a 4-H club short-course scholarship to the University of Florida in 1931 and 1932. He has been assistant local leader, secretary, treasurer, and president of his club.

Miss Edna Sims, Walton County, joined a 4-H club in 1930, specializing in garden and clothing club work. She has given demonstrations in the school-lunch project and also entered the county health contest. She has been a delegate to the State short course. She has been local leader and secretary of her club and also president of the county council.

GEORGIA

Mr. Jesse A. James, Ware County, became a 4-H club member in 1929, and has specialized in peanuts, pigs, dairy, and corn. He has been an entrant in the county health contest. He has attended the State 4-H camp 2 years and Camp Tifton 1 year. He has filled the offices of secretary, reporter, vice president, and president.

Mr. J. B. Olliff, Appling County, has been conducting demonstrations in poultry, hogs, corn, and sweetpotatoes since he joined a 4-H club in 1930. He has been active in contests for judging beef and dairy cattle, hogs, and poultry, and has given demonstrations in grading farm produce. He has attended State club camp and has filled the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, and president.

Miss Louise Stewart, De Kalb County, is in her eighth year of 4-H club work, having chosen clothing, gardening, health, canning, leadership, and home improvement as her projects. She has given demonstrations at county camps in the selection and care of table linen. She has attended the recreational conference and the State club camp a number of times. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of her club, and president of the county council.

Miss Mary Louise Studstill, Lowndes County, first joined a 4-H club in 1929, when she undertook poultry, clothing, home improvement, orchard, and garden work. She has taken part in food-preservation and clothing contests and has given demonstrations in clothing and bread making. She has been an entrant in the county health contest. She has attended State and county camp and also the State fair. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, treasurer, and president of her club.

ILLINOIS

Miss Margaret Anderson, Jefferson County, became a 4-H club member in 1929, choosing dairy, clothing, and foods as her projects. She has been successful in exhibiting her work and in giving demonstrations. She has won a trip to the junior club tour and also to the National Club Congress. She is planning to be leader of a foods club this summer. She has been assistant leader 2 years, president 3 years and secretary 1 year.

Mr. Walter B. Krei, Menard County, selected as his club enterprises pigs, poultry, and dairy club work, which he has carried on each year since 1929. He has exhibited his work and given numerous demonstrations, winning many honors as well as a trip to the National Dairy Show in St. Louis and to the National Club Congress. He has been assistant local leader 2 years, also news reporter, president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and recreation leader,

Mr. Frank Krell, Sangamon County, joined a 4-H club in 1924, and has completed 21 projects in baby beef, pig, colt, corn, and soybeans. He has exhibited his stock at State and county events, winning prizes and trips, and has given demonstrations in judging fat stock. He has been State barrow champion. He has been delegate to the National Club Congress and also president of the county club federation.

Miss Marion R. Yeoman, Fulton County, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1927, selecting clothing, foods, room improvement, and poultry as her projects. She has been successful in her exhibits and demonstrations at district and State contests, winning trips to the junior club tour, State fair, and the National Club Congress. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, and news reporter for her club.

INDIANA

Miss Martha G. Goss, Morgan County, became a 4-H club member in 1925, choosing clothing, junior leadership, and pig-club work. At the Indiana State Fair in 1928 she won first place for a cottonschool-dress costume which was selected to represent the State in its class at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago. She has been a member of the clothing demonstration team for several years. For her clothing-club work at State and county exhibits she has won many awards, including an electric sewing machine, a 4-year scholarship to Purdue University, a trip to the State 4-H club round-up at Purdue and to the 4-H club Congress. She has been leader of a clothing club. For 2 years she served her club as vice president. In both 1932 and 1933 she won first place in the county on her leadership project.

Mr. Russell Lehe, Jasper County, selected as his club enterprises pigs, dairy, poultry, and crop club work, adding to these in 1932, leadership. His original club cow has placed first at the county fair for the last 5 years and also grand champion for the last 2 years. Mr. Lehe has taken part in various demonstrations and has exhibited successfully in State and national shows. He has attended club camps and has been local club leader 2 years. In 1932 he started three new clubs - orchard, colt, and beef breeding. Through his club work he has won four trips to the State fair, and has been delegate to the International Livestock Exposition four times.

Miss Marion Louise Ray, Johnson County, has been a 4-H club member 10 years, specializing in canning, baking, clothing, food preparation, leadership, and room improvement. She has been a member of the county and district clothing-judging teams. In 1925 she won the championship in the county clothing contest. She placed first in the county in her leadership project in 1931, and the same year won a scholarship to the Indiana State Fair School. She has been awarded three trips to the Purdue round-up as well as a trip to the International Livestock Exposition. She has been leader of the Greenwood Club 2 years and also led her home club 2 years. She was selected this spring to act as county girls' 4-H club leader. She has filled the positions of news reporter and president of her club.

Mr. Howard White, Henry County, has had 7 years of club work, specializing in corn, pig, dairy, and leadership. He has been very successful in his exhibits, judging, and demonstration contests. He won first place in the county health contest in 1932. He is leader of approximately 80 boys. He was awarded two trips to the Purdue round-up, and also a trip to the National Dairy Show in St. Louis and to the State leadership camp in 1932. He has been assistant leader, local leader, and vice president of his club and, for the past 3 years, president of a joint club of boys and girls in the township.

IOWA

Miss Ruth Hastings, Greene County, has completed 8 years of club work, including clothing, bread, canning, and room improvement. She has competed successfully in both judging and demonstration contests. She has entered a number of health contests. She has been a representative to the State 4-H convention, the State fair, and the National Club Congress. She has been news reporter, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. James F. Kearns, Webster County, has been enrolled in 4-H club work since 1929. His projects have been dairy calf, gilts, corn, colt, and baby beef. He has been very active in judging contests, having judged at the State fair, Dairy Cattle Congress, National Dairy Show, Interstate Dairy Judging Contest, and at 10 local fairs. He has been an entrant in both the local and the county health contests. He has attended the short course, National Dairy Show, State fair, and Dairy Cattle Congress.

Miss Florence E. Meier, Clayton County, joined a 4-H club in 1927, specializing in canning, clothing, and room improvement. She has been an entrant in the county clothing-judging contest, and has given demonstrations in canning and bread making. She has attended the Dairy Cattle Congress, State 4-H convention, State fair, and National Club Congress. She has been treasurer and president of her club.

Mr. Claire Wemer, Keokuk County, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1930, taking dairy calf, purebred gilt, marketing, and calves as his projects. One year he showed the champion Jersey heifer at the Dairy Cattle Congress. He has been an entrant in the county health contest each year since 1930. He has been active in judging contests. He has won trips to the World's Fair, National Dairy Show at St. Louis, and to the State 4-H club short course.

KANSAS

Miss Ruby Corr, Sedgwick County, became a 4-H club member in 1928, when she enrolled in canning, clothing, and baby-beef work. She has exhibited and demonstrated successfully in State and county contests. In 1931 she won the county championship for baby beef, and in 1932 she was State champion 4-H news reporter. In 1932 she coached 12 demonstration teams. She has been a delegate to the National Club Congress, and has attended club camp. She has assisted in organizing a number of clubs, and has taken an active part in community, county, and State activities.

Mr. Edgar Delmez, Crawford County, selected as his club enterprise gardening, which he has carried on each year for the last 5 years. He has been successful in county and State exhibits, and has won several trips including one to the National Club Congress. He has been garden-project leader and has given talks before more than 25 farm-bureau and general meetings this year, in addition to those given at 4-H club meetings. He has been president of his club 3 years.

Miss Evelyn L. Harley, Cherokee County, has been a club member since 1922. She was a member of the State champion dairy demonstration team in 1926. She was county champion 3 years. She has coached 8 demonstration teams, and has participated in 20 public demonstrations. She has won a trip to the American Royal Livestock Show and the Sioux City Interstate Fair. She has been leader of her club 5 years.

Mr. Harry Stauffer, Mitchell County, selected swine and sheep as his club enterprises, which he has carried each year for the past 8 years. He has competed successfully in State and county contests, judging demonstrations, and exhibits, winning many awards and trips. He has been State sheep champion. He won a scholarship to the State college in 1929 and also a trip to the National Club Congress in 1930. He has a fine record in leadership work. He has been president of his club 3 years.

KENTUCKY

Miss Mattie Sue Bettersworth, Warren County, has spent 5 years in 4-H club work, including in her enterprises poultry, pig, dairy calf, clothing, canning, and room improvement. She helped to organize the first club in Rich Pond Community, and served as secretary of the local club for 2 years and president for 3 years; was secretary of the county association of junior 4-H clubs 1 year and president 2 years, and also a member of the committee on county 4-H club exhibits. Miss Bettersworth has attended the district 4-H club camp 4 years, and has been awarded both silver and gold medals on leadership in camp. She has been State champion in the State style dress revue. She represented western Kentucky in the State achievement radio program. She was awarded a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress.

Miss Ollie Mae Boyers, Campbell County, joined a 4-H club 6 years ago and since that time has completed projects in dairy, foods, canning, and clothing. She has built up a profitable business in the sale of food products especially cakes, which she makes. In 1931 she was State champion in canning, and in 1933, State champion in foods. She owns a herd of five Jerseys. She has been awarded two trips to the National 4-H Congress and also has represented northern Kentucky in the State achievement radio program. She has served as president of her club.

Mr. Louis Hartung, Jefferson County, has been a 4-H club member 6 years, during which time he has completed seven projects in poultry and garden work. During 5 years, in which he has been showing his poultry at the Kentucky State fair, he has won in open and club classes many first and second prizes. With the premium money he built a laying and brooder house. He has been captain of the poultry project group, a member of the county champion judging team, president of the county association of 4-H clubs, and president and vice president of Camp Taylor Club.

Mr. James K. Stacey, Laurel County, has completed 5 years of club work, specializing in poultry, corn, soybeans, fruit, and potatoes. He has been county health champion, president of the county association of 4-H clubs, was president and vice president of the local 4-H club several years, and has been awarded a silver medal for leadership in camp at the district club camp, which he has attended 5 times.

LOUISIANA

Mr. Hugh Greer, Claiborne Parish, has been interested in cotton since he joined a 4-H club in 1931. He has given demonstrations in inoculating legumes, selecting, storing, and testing seed corn, and has taken part in crop and dairy-judging contests. His prize trips included a trip to Shreveport, to Baton Rouge, and to New Orleans. He has been assistant local leader, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Patsy Lou Jackson, Iberville Parish, has been interested in clothing, garden, poultry, food preservation, and home improvement since she joined a 4-H club. She has been successful in her exhibits, judging, and demonstrations, and has been awarded trips to the All South Club Congress at Memphis, Tenn., and to the National Club Congress at Chicago. She makes all her own clothes. She has been leader in poultry projects, local leader, vice president, and president of her club.

Miss Dorothy B. La Croix, Grant Parish, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1929, selecting poultry, gardening, canning, clothing, health, and room improvement. She has competed successfully in exhibits, judging, and demonstrations. She has been a delegate to the Tri-State Fair and also to the National Club Congress. She has been secretary, vice president, president, and reporter for her club.

Mr. Willie D. Warner, Rapides Parish, has carried corn, cotton, pig and potato projects since becoming a club member. He has taken part in crop and livestock judging. He has been awarded trips to the State short course, the Mid-South Fair, and the National Club Congress. He has been local leader and president of his club.

MAINE

Mr. Avery Rich, Penobscot County, started his 4-H club work in 1928, specializing in garden and potato growing. He has won first honors in potato production each year since 1928. In 1930 he added pig-club work to his projects and became county champion. He has been successful in judging demonstrations. He has attended the Eastern States Exposition, and for several years has attended the State contest at Orono. He has been secretary for his club.

Miss Muriel E. Starbird, Piscataquis County, began her 4-H club activities in 1929 by taking cooking, garden, canning, home management, and poultry. With the exception of the first year, when she won second honors in chick raising, she has received first place in every project since that time. She has entered both State and county baking contests, and last year she attended the State 4-H club camp as county winner in the baking contest.

Miss Margaret Rose Stevens, Androscoggin County, has been interested in clothing, canning, and room improvement since 1927. She has won the county championship in canning and sewing. She has taken part in five judging contests in sewing and canning, and has entered the drafting pattern demonstration. She has won two trips to the State contest at Orono and also has attended State camp. She has served as president, secretary, and treasurer of her club and also as assistant leader.

Mr. Warren Sumner Voter, Franklin County, joined a 4-H club in 1928, growing corn and potatoes, later adding poultry, pig, garden, and beans. He has exhibited successfully at State and county events, winning many prizes. He has won first honors in judging at Camp Vail. He has given a demonstration at the meeting sponsored by the Guernsey Breeders' Association. He has attended the State Contest at Orono 3 years, and also has been a delegate to the State camp. He has been president and secretary of his local club.

MARYLAND

Miss Elizabeth Cissel, Howard County, joined a 4-H club in 1927 engaging in cooking, clothing, room improvement, and canning. She has represented Howard County in the cotton-dress exhibit and style show, placing second in the State contest. She has given demonstrations in sewing and cooking and won honors in the canning-judging contest. She attended club week in 1930, 1931, and 1932. She has been club reporter, secretary and president of her club.

Mr. Allie Messer, Montgomery County, selected as his club enterprise dairying, which he has carried on each year since 1930. Since he has been a club member he has owned and creditably exhibited his own and other cattle in local, State, and national shows. He has taken part in two State and two county judging contests. He is active in all phases of club work and has been president and vice president of his club as well as vice president of the boys' federation. He has attended the National Dairy Show at St. Louis.

Miss Charlotte Quinn, Frederick County, has made practical use of her 4-H club training during the 5 years she has been a member. Her club work has included sewing, canning, baking, poultry, vegetable garden, room-improvement, and calf-club projects. Miss Quinn organized and became local leader of a 4-H club in 1932. She has been a member of the county canning judging team. In 1931 she won the championship in the Guernsey calf exhibit and also a prize in the State style show. Last year she won a prize at the international canning contest in Chicago. She did practically all the canning for her mother in 1931. She has been president of her club.

Mr. Calvin Skinner, Queen Annes County, has had 3 years of club experience, specializing in dairy, pigs, and poultry work. He has assisted in organizing a mixed club in a territory about 8 miles in circumference. Also, he has assisted in judging contests, and has given demonstrations in poultry work. There being no home demonstration agent in his county, he organized a girls' club and obtained assistance from the State office to carry on the work. He has been president and secretary of his club.

MASSACHUSETTS

Mr. Warren C. Bray, Hampshire County, has completed projects in poultry, handicraft, corn, and gardening. He has taken part in over 35 judging contests, such as good-seed contests, at fairs, Eastern States Exposition, national poultry-judging contest in New York City, etc. He has been local leader 4 years, was president and organizer of the first 4-H community club in Massachusetts, and vice president of the Hampshire County Service Club. He has been delegate to both State and county camps.

Miss Kathleen Fletcher, Berkshire County, is in her tenth year of club work, and has conducted demonstrations in poultry, home craft, dairying, and canning. She has been very active in dairy contests, being a member of the State 4-H team which went to Waterloo, Iowa, in 1932. She also has taken part in a number of canning and food contests. She has been local leader, president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of her club. She has attended Camp Gilbert as a junior leader.

Miss Jessie Ginn, Norfolk County, selected as her club enterprise clothing, which she has carried on each year since 1928. She has taken part in a number of judging contests at county fairs and at State 4-H contests. She was county clothing delegate to Camp Gilbert in 1931, and has attended Camp Gilbert twice since as a leader.

Mr. Ralph B. Nourse, Worcester County, has completed projects in poultry, dairying, and gardening. In 1933, he had 200 hens and 400 chicks, also 2 heifers and 2 cows. He has taken an active part in dairy, poultry, and vegetable judging contests. He has been assistant local leader 2 years, president, vice president, and secretary of his club, and junior director to represent the town in leadership meetings. He has been a delegate to Camp Gilbert twice.

MICHIGAN

Miss Elna Hansen, Mason County, has been interested in clothing and foods since 1928, when she joined a 4-H club. She has participated in 1 State and 2 county judging contests. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, club secretary and president, as well as leader of the canning, foods, and clothing clubs.

Miss Anna Michaud, Delta County, has had 6 years of club experience, choosing clothing, canning, and handicraft as her projects. She has given demonstrations in dyeing and clothing. She has attended the National Club Congress, State fair, State tour, and had several camp trips. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, treasurer, and president of her club.

Mr. Carl H. Moore, Branch County, began his 4-H club experiences in 1927, when he undertook sheep, sow and litter, calf, and handicraft. He has been successful in judging and demonstration contests. He has attended club week at State college, State fair, and the National Club Congress.

Mr. Jack Tanner, Jackson County, has been interested in potatoes and forestry work since 1929, when he joined a 4-H club. He has been very active in county, State, and national judging contests. He has attended club camp, State fair, and the National Club Congress. He has been local leader, treasurer, and president of his club.

MINNESOTA

Mr. Cecil Berg, Houston County, has been interested in 4-H club work since 1924. He was awarded a scholarship 2 years ago as the State's outstanding dairy-club member. He is working on a partnership basis with his father. Through his 4-H club work he has developed a fine herd of purebred Guernseys, which helped to defray most of his expenses while he attended the school of agriculture. He has been a junior leader for several years and an officer of his local club as well as of the county 4-H council. He has attended the National Dairy Show in St. Louis twice.

Miss Kathleen Flom, Redwood County, has had 7 years of club experience, specializing in room improvement, clothing, baking, and leadership. Last year she won the State championship in bread baking and was also one of the five best junior leaders in the State. For several years she has been a very active junior leader. She has held various local club offices and has been president of the Redwood County 4-H Council. She has won 4 trips to the State fair and 1 trip to the National Club Congress.

Mr. Arwin Lippert, Otter Tail County, has been a 4-H club member 7 years, and also has been an active junior leader for several years. Through his 4-H project work he has developed a fine flock of 26 purebred Shropshire sheep, and as a home-partnership member he owns a share in a herd of good purebred Jersey cows, five of which he developed through his dairy-calf work. Last year he was awarded a scholarship for outstanding 4-H achievements. He has attended junior short course and the State fair four times.

Miss Ruth McFarlane, Douglas County, has spent 8 years in 4-H club work, being interested in canning, clothing, baking, leadership, and calf projects. She has been doing all her own sewing as well as some for the family. She has taken part in sewing and baking judging contests, and has given county and State demonstrations in these projects. In 1932 she was the outstanding home-economics girl in the State. She has won a trip to the National Club Congress. She has held several offices in her local club and in the county 4-H organizations.

MISSISSIPPI

Mr. Robert Case, Lincoln County, during his 5 years of membership in the 4-H club has conducted a total of 19 demonstrations in growing cotton, corn, and raising livestock. He has specialized in raising hogs and dairy cattle. He now owns 4 registered Jerseys, 5 high-grade dairy cows, and 21 Duroc-Jersey hogs. He has been awarded a certificate of efficiency in terracing by the State agricultural engineer. He has terraced most of his father's farm, and 150 acres for neighbors. He has served as a member of the county dairy-judging and general livestock-judging teams that have won high places in the State contests. He has won a trip to the National Club Congress in Chicago. He has been assistant leader, project captain, and local leader of his club.

Mr. L. H. Graves, Hinds County, has conducted 21 demonstrations in growing corn, cotton, potatoes, peanuts, pigs, and baby beeves during the 9 years he has been a club member. As a member of the county and State teams for livestock judging and terracing, he has won trips to the State club congress, the Mid-South Fair, and the National Club Congress at Chicago. He has been a regular and consistent exhibitor and winner at the county club shows. He has been active in forwarding the activities of his local and county clubs which have included club camp, study tours, demonstrations, and contests. He has been president of the county executive committee.

Miss Lucile Johnson, Lauderdale County, enrolled in 4-H club work 8 years ago, selecting poultry, dairy, garden, canning, room improvement, foods, and clothing as her projects. She has made 44 club exhibits and has given 19 demonstrations. She has entered 18 judging contests, and 1 health contest in which she scored 96. When food captain, she had each girl bring her best recipe each month, she added to the recipe, and the collection was made into a book and offered as a prize to the girl who did best in foods work. She was project captain 4 years and also has served as vice president and president of her club.

Miss Elizabeth Young, Marshall County, began her 4-H club work in 1927, when she joined the garden-canning club. She has continued this work and has added poultry, room improvement, and dairy work. She has exhibited successfully at community, county, State, and tri-state events, winning many prizes and trips, including the State club congress, dairy exposition at St. Louis, State fair, and the National Club Congress at Chicago. She also has won first place in the county health contest. In 1932 she won first prize of $100 for the best crop record on the production, cost, and project record of major crops - her crop was cotton. She has served as treasurer, secretary, and president of her club, and also has been local leader 4 years.

MISSOURI

Miss Mildred Ayres, Lafayette County, has completed 7 years of clothing, home improvement, food preservation, and calf-club work. As a leader, her work has been outstanding.

Mr. Fred J. Brune, Jackson County, is in his sixth year of club work and has completed several projects in poultry, baby beef, sow and litter, market pig, corn, health, and first aid. He was a member of the grand-champion agricultural demonstration team at the State round-up in 1931. He has been quite successful in club leadership.

Miss Marylee Holmes, Buchanan County, has spent 9 years in 4-H club work, including in her enterprises clothing, food preservation, baking, calf-club, and sewing. She won first prize for wardrobe exhibit at the State fair in 1929. Her services as a leader in club and community activities have been particularly valuable.

Mr. Frank B. Milne, Holt County, has completed many projects during his 8 years of club work, having enrolled in corn, baby beef, and sow and litter clubs. He was a member of the grand-champion agricultural demonstration team at the State round-up at Columbia in 1933. His record in 4-H club leadership and service activities is an enviable one.

NEBRASKA

Mr. John Bengtson, Boone County, has carried corn, swine, and dairy club work since he joined the 4-H club in 1929. He has exhibited his stock, given demonstrations, and been awarded many prizes. He has been a member of the animal-husbandry judging team. He has attended State and county fairs and also the Club Congress in Chicago. He has been leader of the pig club, president and vice president of the dairy club, and news reporter.

Miss Ruby Kayser, Lancaster County, is in her sixth year of 4-H club work and has completed a number of projects in sewing, cooking, canning, potatoes, and poultry. She has been a member of five demonstration teams. She has exhibited successfully at county, State, and interstate contests. She has done all the home canning for several years and she also makes all her own clothes. In 1932 she won a gold medal and a watch in a canning contest. She has attended club week, State and county fairs, and the National Club Congress in Chicago. She has been secretary, vice president, news reporter, as well as leader of two clubs.

NEBRASKA

Miss Frances Roberts, Fillmore County, joined a 4-H club in 1927, engaging in sewing, cooking, room improvement, and canning. She has given demonstrations in canning chicken and canning equipment, and has judged canned foods at county and State fairs and also at the International at Chicago. She has exhibited successfully for several years; and has won the county canning championship. She has attended State fair 3 times and also the National Club Congress. Last spring she organized a canning club and was its leader.

Mr. Norman Weitkamp, Washington County, is in his sixth year of club work, and has included swine, baby beef, and rope tying and splicing in his projects. He has participated in county, State, and interstate judging contests. He has given demonstrations in swine sanitation, feeding methods, fitting for showing, knot tying, and making halters. Through his exhibits he has won awards and trips. He has attended county club camp, State fair, and has had two trips to the National Club Congress. This year he won the meat identification contest at the State fair. He has been assistant leader, leader, vice president, president, secretary, treasurer, and news reporter for his club.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Miss Velda Garvin, Strafford County, selected as her club enterprise food, clothing, and canning. She participated in judging contests in 1930 and 1931. She has attended State camp and Camp Vail twice. She has been local leader, secretary, treasurer, vice president and president of her club.

Mr. George Gilpatrick Jr., Merrimack County, became a 4-H club member in 1930, carrying forestry, poultry, garden, health, and leadership as his projects. He has been active in the county and State poultry and forestry contests. He has attended leadership camp, State camps, and county forestry camps. He has been assistant local leader, local leader, news reporter, and president of his club.

Mr. Richard Rutherford, Grafton County, has been a 4-H club member since 1926, including in his enterprises potatoes, fruit, poultry, garden, and leadership. He has participated in judging contests, and has judged poultry at both State and county camps. He has attended Camp Durham and Camp Vail. He has been assistant local leader, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Bertha Sanborn, Rockingham County, began her club experiences in 1929 with clothing, foods, canning, room improvement, and leadership. She has been active in contests for judging sewing, canning, and cooking. She has attended club camp twice. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club.

NEW JERSEY

Miss Evelyn Potts, Somerset County, is in her ninth year of club work, including in her enterprises clothing, cooking, room improvement, canning, garden, and home management. She has been successful in exhibiting at State and county events. For several years she has been making all her own clothes. In addition to helping with the home canning, she has canned and sold some of her garden products. During the past 4 years she has been leader of a group of 12 girls. She has been president of the garden club 2 years.

Mr. Austin Risse, Sussex County, began his 4-H club work in 1929, engaging in poultry and dairy club work. He has been a member of three judging teams in State contests. In 1933 his calf was grand champion at Flemington and also won first at Trenton. He has held practically all the offices in his club.

Miss Frieda Schaefer, Mercer County, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1929, choosing as her projects poultry, gardening, and flower club work. During the past 3 years she has owned, managed, and kept a record of a poultry flock which yielded good financial returns. She also has been successful in exhibiting her poultry. She has been in charge of the flower division of the county 4-H show 3 years. She has won 160 awards during her 5 years of exhibiting flowers as well as financial returns from the sale of seedlings, plants, bulbs, and tubers. She has been awarded a scholarship by the New Jersey division of the National Farm and Garden Association. She has given talks and demonstrations at club meetings. She has held the offices of secretary and treasurer of her club.

Miss Hazel Stanton, Camden County, joined a 4-H club in 1927, selecting clothing, foods, canning, and room improvement as her projects. For several years she has made all her own clothes and helped with the family sewing. During the last year she has been leader of a clothing club. Her products have been exhibited successfully in county contests.

NEW MEXICO

Mr. George Brown, Jr., San Miguel County, joined a 4-H club 6 years ago, engaging in dairy, sugar beets, and baby beef. He has taken an active part in judging contests and has given demonstrations in fitting a dairy calf. He now has 4 milch cows and 4 heifers. He has been successful in exhibiting his stock, winning first place for his purebred Jersey. During the past 2 years he has been leader of the one club while carrying work in another. He helped to start a boys' beef club. He won trips to the National Western Stock Show in Denver, the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, and the State contest. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Dorothea Connelly, Colfax County, has completed 5 years of club work, including clothing, food preservation, baking, and home improvement. She has won many blue ribbons for her exhibits, taken part in judging contests, and given demonstrations in clothing and food preservation. She has been a member of the winning county demonstration team. Last year she canned 264 quarts of food. This year she is a local leader and is helping clubs with four projects. She has been a contestant in the county health contest. She also has been a delegate to the district club camp 4 times. She has been local leader, secretary, and president of her club.

Mr. Milton Floersheim Jr., Harding County, selected as his club enterprises poultry, garden, and dairy, which he has carried on each year since 1929. He has given demonstrations in poultry work each year. In 1931 he entered the health contest at the summer camp, winning first place. He has won two trips to the State college. Last year he won first place on his heifer calf. He has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, treasurer, president, and club reporter. This year he is acting vice president and leader.

Miss Rose Hubbard, Chaves County, has been a club member for 6 years, during which time she has carried the clothing, baking, and canning projects. For several years she has given demonstrations in sewing, baking, and canning at both State and county events. She has competed successfully in State and county contests in judging and with her exhibits. In 1933 she won first prize in cooking and second prize in canning at the State fair. She has been leader of a first-year sewing club. She won a trip to the Denver Stock Show in 1930 and also three trips to the State college. She has been local leader, president, and vice president of her club.

NEW YORK

Mr. Read C. Adams, Chenango County, began his club experience with corn-club work to which he later added pig, potato, dairy, swine, and farm mechanics. He has competed successfully at State and county events, winning prizes and trips. He has been a delegate to Camp Vail, National Club Congress, and also has attended the State round-up and club camp. In 1932 he was declared the most outstanding 4-H club boy in the county for the year, and also was State achievement winner. He has given many public demonstrations and has filled the offices of president, secretary-treasurer, news reporter, assistant leader, and local leader.

Miss Martha M. Martin, Nassau County, joined a 4-H club 8 years ago, choosing as her projects clothing, homemaking, foods, room improvement, and crafts. She has been successful in exhibiting her club work at various events, winning prizes and trips. She has given public demonstrations of her various projects and also has organized a club of 12 girls. She has been a delegate to the National Club Congress. She has held the offices of treasurer, secretary, and vice chairman of her club. She has been leader of a local junior club of girls 3 years.

Mr. Claude A. Moulton, St. Lawrence County, has been interested in gardening, poultry, forestry, and calf club work during the past 9 years. He has competed successfully in State and county contests in judging demonstrations and exhibits, and has given a demonstration in rope splices and knots, winning first for rope halter and second for knots. He has been a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress and winner of the Moses Leadership contest. He has filled the club offices of president, secretary, vice president, assistant leader, and local leader.

Miss Emily R. Watts, Jefferson County, is in her ninth year of club work, and has conducted demonstrations in sewing, homemaking, cooking, older-girls' club, and home furnishing. She has won many prizes on her exhibits and has participated in State and county judging contests. She has been a member of two different demonstration teams and has given many public demonstrations. She was State winner of the Moses Leadership Trophy and was a delegate to the National Club Congress in 1932; she also has attended State and county 4-H camps. She has organized and conducted clubs during the past 3 years. She has held the offices of secretary, vice president, and president.

NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. Fred Bass, Wilson County, has specialized in pig-club work since he joined a 4-H club in 1930. He has taken part in judging demonstrations and won the title of high individual in judging swine. He has also taken part in the poultry-judging contest at the State fair. He has taken an active part in leadership affairs in his local club, and has attended 2 short courses, and 2 club camps. He has been an entrant in the county health contest. He has been assistant local leader, local leader, and president of his club as well as president of the 4-H county council for 3 years.

Mr. Joe Pou, Iredell County, began his club work in 1930 with poultry, cotton, and a dairy-calf projects. He has specialized in dairy-calf work and is now developing a fine herd of purebred Jerseys. He introduced an improved strain of cotton into his community. He has won a number of blue ribbons on the calves he exhibited. He served on the livestock-judging team and won first as individual judge of dairy cows. He also has judged crops for livestock at the State fair. He has won 4 trips to the State fair and 2 trips to the State short course. He has filled the offices of president and vice president of his club.

Miss Beatrice Sherrill, Iredell County, in her 5 years of club work has completed projects in clothing, room improvement, canning, foods, and health. Last year she made all her own clothes and helped with sewing for the other members of the family. She has given demonstrations in biscuit making, sewing, and canned goods. She has entered the county health contests each year during the last 3 years. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, president, and recreation leader of her club, as well as president of the service group and homemakers' club.

Miss Mary E. Wildman, Martin County, became a 4-H club member 7 years ago, when she undertook clothing, foods, room improvement, health, and canning. Last year she assisted with the relief canning in the county. At the 5-county club encampment she was voted the most outstanding club girl, winning a free trip to the annual short course. Each year during the last 4 years she has entered the health contest. She has been assistant leader, president, and secretary of her club.

OHIO

Mr. Charles H. Copeland, Athens County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, specializing in dairy work. He has competed successfully in State and county judging contests and demonstrations. He has been an entrant in State and county health contests. He has attended the National Dairy Show and has had several trips to the State fair. He has filled the club offices of news reporter, secretary, vice president, and president.

Mr. Maurice Drake, Williams County, became interested in dairy, and sow and litter work in 1930. He has been active in judging contests and he also entered the State and county health contests. He has been assistant local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Reva J. Hartman, Miami County, has been interested in clothing and foods since joining a 4-H club. She has given demonstrations at the county fair. She has attended the club congress at the State college and has been secretary, vice president, and president, as well as news reporter for her club..

Miss Ruth Lantz, Wayne County, is in her ninth year of 4-H club work, and has conducted demonstrations in baking, canning, clothing, room improvement and meal preparation. She has been a participant in the county elimination contest. She has attended the district camp. She has been assistant local leader, secretary, news reporter, and president of her club.

OKLAHOMA

Mr. Hugo Graumann, Greer County, is in his eighth year of club work, and has conducted demonstrations in livestock, crops, poultry, dairy, terracing, and bees. He has taken part in the following judging contests: National poultry, State poultry, State livestock, State dairy, State terracing as well as giving dairy, poultry, and terracing demonstrations. He has been an entrant in the county health contest, and has been to the National Club Congress twice, State club round-up four times, and to the State fair several times. He has held the club offices of secretary, vice president, and president.

Mr. Edgar L. McVicker, Roger Mills County, selected as his club enterprises dairy, baby beef, swine, cotton, poultry, terracing, and bees. He has participated in many dairy, crops, and livestock judging contests and has given a number of demonstrations. He has attended the State fair schools, National 4-H Club Congress, American Royal Livestock Show, State dairy show, district judging schools, and 4-H club round-up.

Miss Alberta Miller, Lincoln County, joined a 4-H club in 1929 and selected canning, horticulture, poultry, health, and room improvement as her projects. She has taken part in contests for judging bread and vegetables, , and has given demonstrations in sewing, school lunch, and room improvement. In 1933 she prepared 321 meals and canned 1,166 quarts of food. She has attended the National Club Congress, and has had several trips to the State fair and the 4-H round-up. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, and secretary of her club.

Miss Jessie L. Polk, Hughes County, enrolled in 4-H club work in 1927, choosing canning, sewing, home improvement, and health as her projects. Since enrollment she has entered 21 judging contests and has given 36 team demonstrations. She has also entered the State and county health contests. Last year she canned 306 quarts of food. She has attended the Oklahoma State fair school and the State 4-H round-up 3 times. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, and president of her club.

PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. Mark Balthaser, Berks County, joined a 4-H club 7 years ago, celery, pigs, and dairy-calf club work having claimed his interest. He has competed successfully in State and county contests, in judging demonstrations, and in exhibits. He has been a member of two judging teams. He has kept complete production records on the home-farm dairy herd. He has assisted with leadership work in his club. He has been president of his dairy club each year since he joined. He has taken a short course in agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College.

Miss Kathryn M. Grotzinger, Elk County, became a 4-H club member in 1928, selecting clothing, food and health, canning, and room improvement. She has exhibited her club work at local, county, and State fairs, receiving many honors. She has been on judging teams and has given demonstrations at both State and county events. She does most of her own sewing. She has won trips to the State college, district, county, and State camps. She has been local leader 4 years and also has filled the offices of news reporter and president of her club.

Miss Esther Hart, Greene County,

Mr. Albert L. Metzler, Lancaster County, has been interested in corn, dairy calf, baby beef, and poultry since his first year, 1927. He has competed successfully in State and county contests in judging demonstrations and exhibits. Last year he won a silver loving cup for high score at the Guernsey field day. He now owns 2 Holstein-Friesian cows, 2 heifer calves, and 250 Rhode Island hens and pullets. He has attended the State leadership-training school and county and State club camps. He has been president of the baby-beef and corn clubs and secretary of the poultry club.

RHODE ISLAND

Miss Etta M. Cory, Newport County, has specialized in foods and clothing since becoming a 4-H club member. She has been a member of the State health-demonstration team at Camp Vail and active in judging contests at both Camp Vail and Camp Edwards. She has attended State camp, county fair, and Camp Vail. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of her club.

Miss Norma E. James, Kent County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, carrying projects in foods, health, and clothing. She has entered several health and judging contests, and has taken part in demonstrations. She has been a delegate to Camp Vail. She has been secretary and president of her club.

Mr. William Manchester, Bristol County, joined a 4-H club in 1930, choosing dairying, garden, handicraft, and poultry. He has been an entrant in the health contest at Camp Vail and active in judging contests. He has won trips to the local camp and Camp Vail. He has filled the club offices of assistant local leader, local leader, and secretary.

Mr. Michael S. Pucino, Kent County, enrolled in poultry, dairy, and handicraft work in 1930, when he joined a 4-H club. He entered the poultry-judging contest at Camp Vail, which he attended as a delegate from his club. He has been assistant local leader and vice president of his club.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Miss Margaret Church, Anderson County, began her 4-H experiences 7 years ago by enrolling in the following projects: Clothing, canning, gardening, room improvement, leadership, and poultry. She has competed successfully in State and county contests in judging, demonstrations, and exhibits. She has been group captain and leader at the short course. She made a high score in the health contest in 1932. Since the death of her mother she has had the care of a number of small children. She has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Waymon W. Church, Anderson County, has completed 6 years of club work, carrying projects in cotton, corn, poultry, and gardening. He has kept a complete record of the cost of production. He entered the poultry-judging contest and was county winner in 1933. He has attended the leadership-training school at Anderson, county fair, and club camp. He has been club secretary 3 years and president 2 years.

Mr. C. L. Gramling, Jr., Orangeburg County, has completed 8 years of 4-H club work, specializing in corn and swine. This year he has added cotton to his list of demonstrations. He has competed successfully in judging demonstrations and exhibits. He has attended the annual club round-up 3 years, and has been a member for his county of the tricounty judging team. He has been president and vice president of his club, and chairman of the program committee of his community club.

Miss Mary Rayle, Richland County, has spent 5 years in 4-H club work, including in her enterprises poultry, food, gardening, dairy, and record keeping. She has built a brick brooder house and a laying house and has established a market for her poultry and eggs. She has exhibited and demonstrated successfully at county and State contests. In 1929 she placed first in the county health-improvement contest. She has been group leader, secretary, and president of her club.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Miss Mildred Lyman, Beadle County, has made practical use of her 4-H club training during the 8 years that she has been a member. Her completed projects include clothing, poultry, home furnishing, and dairy food. In 1933 she gave 35 public demonstrations. She has been a member of the State and National dairy demonstration teams. In her home-craft project she has made eight articles. Last year she prepared all the meals for the home, using dairy products. She was the winner of a health medal in 1933. She has been reporter, vice president, president, and also leader in her local club for 3 years. She has coached three club plays and directed five programs. She has won trips to the National Dairy Cattle Congress, Waterloo; National Club Congress, Chicago; State short course, and State fairs.

Miss Edna McLoughlin, Hanson County, has been a 4-H club member for 6 years during which time she has specialized in foods, clothing, canning, and dairy foods. She has given 10 public demonstrations, 2 of which were at the State fair, where she has exhibited for 5 successive years. Her project work in 1933 included a complete clothing outfit for herself and several garments for others. She also canned 40 quarts of fruit, vegetables, and pickles. She has been secretary, vice president, president, and leader of her club. She also was vice president of the State 4-H members' association in 1933. As a local leader she coached the reserve State champion demonstration team. In the health contest she has won second place in her district and a health medal in the State contest.

Mr. Henry G. Meyer, Corson County, started 4-H club work in 1929, raising 2 acres of corn. He has completed 5 corn projects and 3 sow and litter projects. He has exhibited successfully at both county and State fairs. He has participated in five crop-judging contests, ranking highest individually in the State in 1933. He also took part in the National contest in Chicago. Last year he raised 29 pigs and 60 acres of corn. He has been instrumental in bringing purebred hogs to his community and has introduced a number of good practices including balanced rations hog-lot sanitation, pure-seed corn, testing seed and practicing weed control. He is leader of his club of 14 members. He lives on his mother's farm of 640 acres and operates it for her.

Mr. Tyrus Thompson, Bon Homme County, is in his fourth year of club work and has completed several projects in poultry, dairy, sow and litter, and baby beef. He has been a member of 3 county livestock-judging teams and 1 county dairy-judging team. He has represented his State at the interstate dairy-judging contest. He has been leader or assistant leader of three clubs having 100 percent completion. He has been treasurer and president of the county 4-H members' association. He organized and managed a play put on by 4-H members of the county.

TENNESSEE

Mr. Hollis Reed, Scott County, has been interested in Irish potato growing since 1929. He has specialized in this project using certified seed and cultural methods, and followed the county agent's instructions in grading and marketing the potatoes. He has been successful in exhibiting at county and district fairs, and has competed on the county livestock-judging team. He has served as junior leader of his club. He has always taken an active part in local club programs.

Mr. Lynn D. Steele, Davidson County, began 4-H club work in 1928, specializing in dairy work which he has continued each year. He has been a consistent exhibitor and winner at the Tennessee State Fair every year. He has won trips to the club congress at Nashville, and to the fall round-up each year. He now owns five cows. He is much interested in every part of the club program. He has been club leader 1 year.

Miss Oma Angie Worley, Maury County, became a 4-H club member in 1929, selecting clothing, foods, poultry, health, room improvement, and garden projects, in which she has made an outstanding record. She has exhibited her work, winning many prizes on her clothing and canning projects and also two trips to the State fair. She won a blue ribbon in the health contest, and has judged butter and clothing. She has been secretary and treasurer of her club. During the past 3 years she has made most of her own clothes and some for other members of the family.

Miss Mabel Yates, Shelby County, has had 5 years of exceptionally fine club work. Her projects have been poultry, gardening, and canning. Her exhibits have won for her many prizes and also trips to the Mid-South Club Congress, State club camp, and National Club Congress. She has entered several judging contests in which she judged poultry and canned goods. She has been local leader, vice president, and president of her club.

TEXAS

Mr. Jimmie Hajovsky, Fayette County, has had 4 years' experience in hog feeding and corn-club work. During the past 3 years he has used corn-cotton rotation. He won the title of champion corn grower of his county. He has given corn and terracing demonstrations and has coached other boys in corn growing. He has won a trip to the State short course and to the State 4-H club camp. He has been assistant local leader, local leader, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Florence Klingsporn, Washington County, has carried poultry, canning, clothing, and room-improvement projects since becoming a club member. In her poultry work she followed the A. & M. College methods by building a modern brooder house and laying house, feeding balanced rations, culling, and controlling insects and diseases. She made 37 garments for her wardrobe last year, improved her room, and beautified her yard. She has won a trip to the State fair at Dallas and three trips to the State short course. She is president of the girls' 4-H clubs of her county and takes a leading part in community activities.

Mr. Cecil Moore, Schleicher County, began his 4-H club work in 1930, specializing in lambs and baby beef, which he has carried each year since. In 1933 he fed 65 lambs which he showed at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. They were the champion carload of fat lambs. He has given 12 demonstrations and has won trips to the Fort Worth livestock show and the National Club Congress. He has been assistant local leader and local leader of his club.

Miss Evelyn Silbernagel, Galveston County, has had 3 years of club work. In her yard demonstration are 160 shrubs in her screen and foundation plantings, and 250 living cuttings in her cutting bed. A shell walk has been laid and a hedge and small barn have been moved. Her room has been improved by refinishing the floor, woodwork, and furniture. Her canned tomatoes and tomato juice have been standardized, and her home improvements have been made through the sale of these products.

VERMONT

Miss Norma L. Fletcher, Orleans County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, choosing as her projects clothing, room improvement, and handicraft. She has competed successfully in judging demonstrations and exhibits. She has attended State camp, county camp, and the 4-H round-up. She has held the club offices of assistant local leader, local leader, news reporter, treasurer, vice president, and president.

Mr. Charles Livack, Rutland County, has completed 6 years of 4-H club work including garden, calf, dairy, potato, handicraft, and manual training. He has participated in livestock judging at the field days since 1931. He has given demonstrations in clean-milk production and has won many prizes for his exhibits. He has attended county camp and State 4-H week. He has been local leader, treasurer, secretary, news reporter, and vice president of his club.

Mr. Stuart A. Newton, Franklin County, has specialized in dairy calf work since he joined a 4-H club in 1929. He has competed successfully in both judging demonstrations and exhibits, winning many prizes. He has given demonstrations in how to build a bull pen, and has spoken before the Vermont Dairymen's Association. He has attended the 4-H dairy camp and the Eastern States Exposition. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Eleta Sargent, Addison County, became a 4-H club member in 1930, choosing foods, clothing, canning, and room improvement as her projects. She has exhibited her work, winning many prizes and trips. She attended county camp 4 years, State week 2 years, and 4-H camp 1 year. She has been assistant local leader, treasurer, president, and news reporter of her club.

VIRGINIA

Miss Alice Bready, Fairfax County, has completed 7 years of club work, including clothing, canning, food preservation, health, and room improvement. She has competed successfully in exhibits, demonstrations, and judging contests. She has trained demonstration teams and judging teams. She makes some of her own clothes, and is junior leader of a group of 14 girls. She has attended State short course and State club camp. She has been president and news reporter for her club.

Mr. Harry Griffin, Buckingham County, joined a 4-H club in 1930, specializing in corn and lespedeza. Last summer at the Hampden-Sydney short course he was awarded a scholarship as the outstanding boy attending. He also has attended the short courses at the State college several times. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Mr. Spencer Rogers Hickman, Accomac County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, and has specialized in poultry, potatoes, and pigs. He has entered several poultry-judging contests and given demonstrations in egg grading and packing. He is now acting as junior club leader for boys' work in local clubs. He has represented his county as a health contestant at the State Short Course. He has been vice president of his club, junior local leader, and junior club leader.

Miss Annie Laurie Jones, Campbell County, became interested in 4-H club work in 1927, when she enrolled in gardening, foods, room improvement, and clothing. She has been successful in her demonstrations and has entered several county contests for judging clothing and foods. She makes most of her own clothes and does a large part of the home canning and drying. She is leader of a small club of little girls. She has been a delegate to the district short course. She has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president. She also has been secretary and treasurer of the county council and secretary for the district camp.

WASHINGTON

Miss Delia E. Faler, Spokane County, enrolled in 4-H club work 8 years ago, choosing sewing and cooking as her projects. She has competed successfully at State and county events, winning 35 first placings with her exhibits, demonstrations, and judging. Miss Faler placed first in the judging of baked goods at the National Club Congress last year. She has been a member of numerous demonstration and judging teams, winning high honors in each division. She has served 2 years as club leader, 4 years as assistant leader, and 5 years as president of her club. She has won trips to the State fair at Yakima and the National Club Congress in Chicago.

Mr. Irvin Green, Lincoln County, has been a club member 7 years, during which time he has carried dairy, sheep, and swine projects. His prize animals won 42 "firsts" during this period at county, State, and interstate fairs. He has won honors in livestock judging, and last year was the winner of the Mu Beta Beta scholarship presented by the State college honorary fraternity. He served as president of the county 4-H club 2 years, and vice president of the regional club organization in 1933.

Mr. Jack Morse, Clark County, has carried poultry, pig, calf, and garden work since joining the 4-H club 8 years ago. He has been active at community, State, and regional fairs in dairy and livestock judging, in judging demonstrations, and in exhibiting his livestock. He has shown outstanding leadership in his club work. He has served as local 4-H club leader 2 years, assistant leader 1 year, and as president, vice president, and secretary of his club at various times. He has been a delegate to the Washington State fair, summer club camp in Oregon, and the Pacific International Livestock Show.

Miss Neva Simons, Grays Harbor County, has completed projects in dairying, bee keeping, gardening, orchard care, canning, room improvement, and meal preparation during her 10 years of club work. With the exception of the first 3 years, she has carried at least three projects each year, and in some years as many as five. In competition at county, State, interstate and national fairs and expositions she has won 135 "firsts" with her exhibits, judging, or demonstrations. She has been a member of a demonstration or judging team nearly every year for the past 8 years. She has been club leader 3 years and assistant leader 2 years. She has held various offices in her club including those of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and news reporter. She has been a delegate a number of times to each of the following: Club camp at Pullman, western Washington fair, and Pacific International Live Stock Show in Oregon.

WEST VIRGINIA

Miss Helen Turley, Brooke County, has completed 6 years of club work, choosing clothing and baking as her enterprise. She has competed in State and county contests in judging demonstrations and exhibits. She entered the health contest in 1932 and 1933. She has won two trips to the regional fair at Wheeling. She has been local leader, secretary, treasurer, and president of her club.

Mr. Waldo Ward, Randolph County, has been interested in garden, dairy-calf, and potato work since 1925. He has been an entrant in the county 4-H health contest. He has exhibited his club work at various events, winning awards and trips to both State and county camps. He has given demonstrations in the method of Indian fire building. He is now leader of a 4-H club. He has held all the offices in his club.

Mr. James W. Williamson, Jackson County, joined a 4-H club in 1925, specializing in poultry, corn, pigs, and baby beef. He has consistently exhibited his club projects with success at State, county and international events. He and his father in partnership own a herd of purebred registered Hereford cattle and a herd of Duroc-Jersey swine. He is a member of the Jackson County livestock-judging team. He has won a trip to the National Club Congress as well as several trips to Jackson's Mill and to State, and regional fairs. He has served as president of his club.

Miss Werneth Wilson, Wirt County, has specialized in clothing and baking for the past 8 years. She has exhibited her work, winning prizes and trips to State and county camps. She also has given demonstrations in baking and packing lunches as well as in judging clothing. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, and secretary of her club. She believes that club work has given her a new and very fine philosophy of life.

WISCONSIN

Miss Grace E. Clem, Chippewa County, has completed 7 years of club work, including clothing, canning, garden, baking, and junior leadership. She has exhibited and demonstrated successfully in county and State contests. In 1930 she was county health champion. She has earned money both by canning and sewing for friends. She has won trips to the State fair, State club week, and State club camp. She has been assistant local leader 1 year and local leader 3 years. She has been president, secretary, and news reporter for her club.

Miss Lila Hammen, Fond du Lac County, has been an active club member for 5 years and has completed projects in sewing, baking, room improvement, calf work and junior leadership. She was a member of the State champion dairy demonstration team in 1930 and 1931. She has won several educational trips to Chicago and also to the State fair and the State 4-H camp. She has given demonstrations in bread baking at both State and county events. She has been assistant local leader, president, secretary, treasurer, and news reporter of her club.

Mr. George Miller, Dodge County, has had 7 years of club experience, specializing in leadership and also in poultry and potatoes. He has conducted poultry demonstrations and competed successfully in exhibits, winning honors and trips. He has been a delegate to the National Dairy Show, St. Louis, National Club Congress, and Club Week at Madison. He organized the first local club in his county. Each year he is called upon to help to cull large flocks. While he was leader of a club it grew from 6 to 80 members. Last year he was awarded a watch for being the best junior leader.

Mr. Edward L. Wittwer, Eau Claire County, has been a club member 9 years, taking poultry, gardening, pig, calf, and potato work, and junior leadership as his projects. He has competed in three judging contests. He has given 14 demonstrations and exhibited his 4-H club projects successfully. He has represented his State at the National Dairy Show, St. Louis, and also won two trips to the State fair. He had a high score in two national health contests. He has served his club as news reporter, junior leader, and was president 4 years.

WYOMING

Miss Annabel Cummins, Goshen County, has carried 7 years of 4-H club work, successfully completing projects in foods, clothing, room improvement, gardening and swine. During the last 2 years she has been leader of a young girls' food club. Up to and including 1933 she made a total of 61 exhibits of her club projects at county and State fairs and won a large number of awards for them. She has been a member of several demonstration teams which have competed and won honors. She was awarded the State championship in home-economics club work in 1932 and with it a trip to the National Club Congress at Chicago. She has taken an active part in programs at recreation camps, fairs, and achievement days, and has held various offices in her club.

Mr. Ole Jacobsen, Uinta County, has completed 4 years of club work, during which time he has built up a flock of 30 head of sheep in connection with his project. He served as president of his club the first 2 years. He was assistant leader during the past year, during which time he assisted with training his club demonstration team which won second place in the county contest.

Miss Eloise Lungren, Big Horn County, has been a member of a 4-H club for the past 3 years, specializing in clothing and food projects. Her record shows a total of 24 exhibits made in county and State contests for which she has had a number of winnings. She has given 14 public demonstrations. Last year she placed first in a State canning contest, winning a trip to the interstate 4-H club round-up at the Denver Stock Show. She has been president and secretary of her club.

Mr. William Raleigh, Goshen County, has had 6 years of club experience, specializing in dairy projects and colt-club work. He has built up a fine small herd of shorthorn milking cows, and during the past year has started to acquire some good horses through colt-club work. He has exhibited successfully at county fairs. He has entered five stock-judging contests; his team in 1932 won first place in the county and State, thereby winning a trip to the Denver Stock Show. He has served in most of the offices of his club and has taken an active part in community and county 4-H club affairs..

STATE CLUB LEADERS

Eighth National Farm Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club Camp

Alabama.....	Bess Fleming T.A. Sims
Arkansas.....	Mena Hogan W.J. Jernigan
Connecticut.....	Elsie Trabue A.J. Brundage
Delaware.....	Mrs. Helen McKinley A.D. Cobb
Florida.....	Isabelle Thursby J. Lee Smith
Georgia.....	Lucille Turner G.V. Cunningham
Hawaii.....	Mabel Greene
Idaho.....	Marjorie Eastman
Illinois.....	Cleo Fitzsimmons E. I. Pilchard D. E. Lindstrom
Indiana.....	May Masten
Iowa.....	Mrs. Josephine A. Bakke J.S. Quist
Kansas.....	M.H. Coe Mabel Smith
Kentucky.....	Edith Lacy G. J. McKenney
Louisiana.....	Mary Mims
Maine.....	Loana M. Spearin L.H. Shibles
Maryland.....	Dorothy Emerson E.G. Jenkins
Massachusetts.....	W.A. Munson G.L. Farley Marion Forbes

Michigan.....Lola Belle Green
A.G. Kettunen

Minnesota.....Mildred Schenck

Mississippi.....Elaine Massey
H.S. Johnson

Missouri.....T.T. Martin

New Hampshire.....Mary Sanborn
C.B. Wadleigh

New Jersey.....A.M. Hulbert
Miss B. Lawson Miller
Ralph R. Peters

New York.....Dorothy DeLaney
W.J. Wright
R.A. Polson

North Carolina.....Ruth Current
L.R. Harrill

Ohio.....O.C. Croy
R. Bruce Tom

Oklahoma.....Ford Mercer
Mrs. Elva Duvall

Pennsylvania.....Mrs. F.C. Stewart
A.B. Bingham
A.L. Baker
W.R. Gordon

Rhode Island.....L.F. Kinney, Jr.
Marion L. Fry

South Carolina.....Mrs. Harriet F. Johnson
R.F. Kolb

South Dakota.....Beulah Rodgers
D.E. Cass

Tennessee.....Agnes Donaldson
G.C. Wright

Texas.....Sadie Hatfield
E.C. Martin
Lena Wollschlaeger
Lorraine Morrison

Utah.....Myrtle Davidson
Vermont.....Martha Leighton
 E.L. Ingalls
Virginia.....Hallie L. Hughes
 Gordon Elcan
 Maude Wallace
 B.L. Hummel
Washington.....Leonard Hegnauer
West Virginia.....Adele Bigelow
 I.B. Boggs
Wisconsin.....Verne V. Varney
 A.F. Wileden
Wyoming.....F.P. Lane
Canada.....J.E. Whitelock

